Front foil Titanus Top Sens 2 EB

Part No.:   801548

Approval:

Description

Front foil for indicating staged alarm modes and smoke density levels when using two detector modules.

Technical Data

Abmessungen

Additional information

Please note that separate training is required for the LRS aspirating smoke detection system.

As part of this training, further details are provided on project planning as well as commissioning.

Required passwords are also given.

For further information, please contact your local sales representative.

Downloads